

Meelup Management and recruitment.

Meelup
Management

Chris conducts executive search and recruitment assignments for clients. Often as a result of management consulting assignments and knowledge of the corporate culture they are trying to create or support, Chris uses his profiling and 360° knowledge and experience to ensure the right cultural fit, beyond just technically strong or having the right qualifications.

This includes leadership styles, behaviours, values, general mindset and cultural "fit".
